

I urge the FCC to reject NAB's petition 04-160. Satellite radio traffic and weather is very useful to me when I travel around the United States. It's a great technology and local radio stations need to learn to live with it. We can't stop the evolution of technology just to satisfy a small group of oldtime radio broadcasters.